Swiss Medtech Day is the leading conference of the Swiss medical technology industry – attracting over 600 industry representatives every year.

Our Motivation

Our primary goal and mission is to strengthen the Swiss medical technology industry.

Our Activities

Swiss Medtech Day contributes significantly to the sustainable success and secure future of the industry.

- Raise Awareness: Swiss Medtech Day functions as a compass for the Swiss medical technology industry - identifying opportunities & pointing the way to the future
- Enable: Industry pioneers and experts give keynotes, and deep dive sessions to provide the tools needed for tomorrow.
- Network: Shared experiences and learning promote new partnerships and motivate individuals to break new ground.
