Web Summit 2021 has been a great success on its return to Lisbon after two years away. But we are already looking forward to Web Summit 2022. Will we see you in Lisbon from November 1-4 for three more days of exciting tech events?

What Entrepreneur calls “one of the most highly regarded gathering places for startups, corporations and investors” has returned to Lisbon’s Altice Arena. Speakers including Amy Poehler and Thierry Henry graced the stage to share their expertise. Corporations and startups alike were brought together. And excited attendees from across the globe are all about making amazing lead generation opportunities. But we already have one eye on Web Summit 2022.

What do I need to know about Web Summit 2022?

We are so excited to return to the Portuguese capital from November 1-4, 2022. The tech event will again run for three days in the Altice Arena and Feira Internacional de Lisboa exhibition sites.

Web Summit 2022 will feature talks from tech experts, cultural icons and global policymakers, as well as interactive Q&A sessions, masterclasses, roundtables and speaker experiences. It will offer lounges and dedicated meeting spaces to bring attendees from every sector together and generate business leads. It will also feature hot meals, snack options and alcoholic beverages from the best of Lisbon's food and drink amenities.

Why Web Summit?

- Networking

Imagine gathering the "who's who of international tech" for an invaluable networking session. Join us in Lisbon next November to meet people from across the world, connect, and continue your conversations long after the event ends. Inc. says Web Summit has "game-changing speakers, dynamic content, and great opportunities to network and connect with others".

- Learning and development

With expert masterclasses and roundtables on the schedule, Web Summit is buzzing with insights from the leaders of all industries touched by tech. Hear from a balanced and enticing speaker line-up covering thought-provoking conversations and pressing topics you need to learn all about.

As Entrepreneur Magazine puts it, "every visitor is guaranteed to learn something both new and exciting".

- Lead generation

Our attendees want to see what's out there – and what's in the pipeline – in the world of tech. Join us in Lisbon and connect with who you need to meet to drive your business forward. Use our software to discover new contacts, then get to the event floor and generate precious leads.

HuffPost says Web Summit "brings together the people and companies redefining the global tech industry". Connect with everyone from CEOs and founders to marketers and developers, and take your business to the next level.

- Inspiring content

Alongside tech's leaders and innovators, we've gathered authors, athletes, actors and more to talk about how tech touches their industries. Our world-class speakers will take to the stage to share their expertise through inspiring talks, interactive Q&As, and masterclasses covering more than 30 topics.

Forbes encapsulates Web Summit's energy, saying it "bridges the gap between creativity and tech, while balancing sober dialogue with the optimistic ethos synonymous with innovation".

- Team building

Teams from the world's top organisations come together at Web Summit to strengthen professional bonds. Give your team a shared experience and spark new ideas through inspiring talks and networking opportunities. You never know who you may meet on the event floor.

Inc. sums it up: "You'll be a part of (and benefit from) a community that more accurately represents the world we live in."

- Brand awareness

Get your brand in front of major international publications. Web Summit attracts senior journalists from the likes of Bloomberg, Financial Times, Forbes, CNBC and the Wall Street Journal. Amplify your message and showcase your company to the world from Lisbon this November.

In the words of Recode, you can make a name for yourself at a conference that's "the most striking in the world from a technological and entrepreneurial point of view".

Startup? Apply to join the Web Summit 2022 ALPHA startup programme

Our startup programme – ALPHA – offers you the chance to join a global community of startups, each one selected by the Web Summit team for its potential, uniqueness and world-changing ideas. If chosen, you'll get three tickets to Web Summit, access to Investor to Startup meetings, and be eligible to apply for PITCH, Startup masterclasses, Mentor Hours and more. Join us in Lisbon in 2022.
