Discover everything you need to know about the new edition of HealthTech Innovation Days

Every year, HealthTech For Care, organizes the HealthTech Innovation Days (HTID), a pivotal European event serving as a platform for innovation and science stakeholders.

HTID accelerates the implementation of solutions for patients, placing their role at the heart of innovation. The event fosters dynamic interactions through 1x1 meetings among European companies, global investors, industrial and pharmaceutical groups, as well as patients and patient associations.

Moreover, HTID includes conferences addressing crucial topics of general interest, guided by international experts, European Institutions and key opinion leaders (KOLs). Pitch session are also organized.

One-to-one meetings

Forge connections with fellow C-level executives within the European industry, international investors, leading pharmaceutical organizations, and patient advocacy groups.

These pre-booked meetings through the event platform allow you to have dedicated one-to-one conversations at an assigned table during a specific time slot.

Connect with like-minded individuals, exchange ideas, and explore collaborative opportunities to drive innovation and advance healthcare solutions.

Round Table Discussions and Keynotes

Dive into thought-debating conversations guided by esteemed global experts and European Institutions exploring pivotal themes that are at the forefront of shaping the trajectory of healthcare.

Gain invaluable insights and perspectives as you participate in dynamic round table discussions designed to address pressing issues facing the healthcare landscape today.
